Description

Pyes Hall is a handsome Grade II Listed farmhouse believed to date from the 16th Century, of timber framed construction with brick elevations under a tiled roof. It is anticipated that a buyer will wish to carry out a full refurbishment programme.

The hall sits beside a collection of brick and timber framed Suffolk barns, which are deemed to be curtilage listed and one of which is individually Grade II Listed.

The hall and additional range of barns have separate driveways. The hall's drive leads to a parking area adjacent to which are a range of garages and stores, one of which is of brick construction under a tiled roof, the other of timber under a thatched roof. A door to the side of the hall leads to a hallway, off which is the cellar, kitchen, boiler room and the first of three reception rooms. Off the boiler room is a spacious utility and store room. There are three particularly spacious reception rooms as well as a study, pantry and cloakroom. On the first floor are seven bedrooms along with three bathrooms. There are two sets of stairs leading up to the attic rooms. These are ideal for storage but would have in the past be used as additional staff bedrooms.

The house is surrounded by gardens which are predominantly laid to grass and contain mature trees. In all, the grounds extend to 2 acres. The range of barns, which are accessed via a separate drive upon which the property has a right of way, are made up of a number of buildings. There is a most impressive thatched timber framed Suffolk barn which linked to a attractive range of red brick buildings by more modern agricultural units. In addition is a further thatched timber barn and a detached brick and timber red brick barn under a tiled roof.

Site Plan

- The property being sold is outlined in red and pegged on site.
- The property will benefit from a right of way over the track shaded brown (but between points Y and Z there will only be a right of way for the emptying/maintaining of the septic tank).
- The buyer will be responsible for fencing the property between points D, A and B.
- There is to be no hedging/fencing over the land shaded blue so as not to obscure the visibility.
